

Khaled Bushnaq

CEO

ems-int

Profile

Khaled Bushnaq is the founder and Chief Executive Officer of Energy Management Services – EMS, the first Energy Saving / Service Company (ESCO) in the Middle East, the Chairman of EGBC (Emirates Green Building Council), and the Vice – Chair of World Green Building Councils – MENA

Khaled holds other positions, as he is Member of Advisory and Decision Committee in Mohammed Bin Rashed Innovation Fund - Energy & Water - Member of the Advisory Board – British University of Dubai and a certified expert in Metaverse.

Khaled, having full grasp of the opportunities and challenges that go with the demands of the business, has evolved into a leading figure in energy management in the Middle East, and was the recipient of the 1993 "Special Recognition Award" at the 16th World Energy Congress, and bestowed the title "Legend in Energy - 2010" by the Association of Energy Engineers – USA at its 33rd World Energy Congress, in honor of his stellar career in the domain of energy efficiency.